Book and Job Printing House.

GEORGE W. WILSON,

Formerly of S N. Dickinson and Co's extensive Printing Establishment, Boston, and for the last few years Foreman for H. S. Taylor of this Town.

Has the pleasure of announcing to his friends and the business public, that he has completed arrangements by which he has become the proprietor of the well known Book and Job Printing Office, for many years owned and occupied by J. M. Wood, in connection with the Messrs G. and C. Merriam, centrally situated on the corner of Main and State streets, over Merriam, Chapin and Co's Bookstore, Springfield, Mass., and that he is at this date actively employed in remodeling and improving the same.

His plans embrace extensive exchanges, and additions of the most Modern and Useful materials, and are of such a nature as will, when completed, enable him to execute with unsurpassed beauty, neatness, and accuracy, every possible variety of Typographic and Zelographic Printing ever demanded by any class of the business public, or which correct and classic taste may require in the more ornamental branches.

His long and extensive experience in City and Country, on the almost endless variety of Forms and Blanks used by the different business interests of community, enables him to say with confidence that he can suit even the fastidious of any class, and at prices as low as can be afforded by ANY "REGULAR" AND COMPETENT CITY PRINTER.

He will pay particular attention to Card, Certificate, Check, and General Blank and Pamphlet Printing, for which his facilities are unsurpassed. On his superior and compact Card Press, a pack of Address Cards can be beautifully printed in five minutes.

His fine Gold and Silver Printing is executed with a sizing of his own manufacture, the result of years of extensive experiment, and is warranted to work better, and to be in every respect superior to any that can be obtained in the market. Gold and silver bronze used with this sizing is warranted so perfectly adhesive that the paper may all be rubbed off around the letter without affecting it in the least, and as there is an entire absence of all coloring matter in it, the most delicate tints will remain for years unchanged.

His friends and the Public are respectfully invited to bestow upon him a share of their patronage.

Springfield, Dec. 1, 1848.

N. B. The Patrons of the Directory are authorized to expect many improvements in the next number.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The generous patronage and encouragement bestowed upon our past efforts to give the public an annual DIRECTORY accommodated to the wants and circumstances of every class of citizens, stimulates the desire to offer our sixth Number as equally acceptable.

We are compelled, however, in this No to omit some things which are found in our last. This is unavoidable unless we oblige the public at a dead loss to ourselves; which we presume a generous public will never demand. To increase the size of the volume, in proportion to the increase of population and business, would compel us to incur such additional expenses, as would oblige us to sacrifice, or demand an additional ninepence. We therefore conclude to perfect whatever relates to men and business, abridging in matters not so essential; and hold on to our former price, for the present year. Our next Number however will contain alterations and improvements in advance of any of its predecessors.

1. It will be issued on the 1st of May, so as to meet past defects arising from changes of families on the 1st of April; so that the residence of every family may be readily found by referring to the Directory.

2. We shall enlarge by adding such matter and business items as seem to be demanded; hoping that an increase of patronage, arising from an increase of population, will enable us to offer it without any additional expense to our patrons.

3. We shall present our friends with a new and improved Map of Springfield.

With due acknowledgments for past favors, and an humble desire to please and oblige the Public, in an obliging way to ourselves; we again subscribe ourselves your accommodating friend,

V. W. SKIFF.

There 's a piercing blast from the lonely hills,
And the frost has bound the rivers and rills;
The snow has made white both forest and lea,
And icicles hang from the old elm tree.

Sallies a driving storm, when the cold winds blow;
A sad dreary waste, around us is spread,
Yet stars shine above in their azure bed.

There's a charm in May, when the leaves unfold,
And the flowers appear in crimson and gold;
When the fields look green, and the landscape gay,
And the new clad trees in the soft zephyrs play.

The carol of birds from the blooming bough
Is heard both at dawn and and eventide now;
And on fluttering pinions the insect floats by,
With wings richly tinged in nature's own dye.

Go, walk in the fields when the dew-drops lay
On the waving grass, or fall from the spray;
When the air is cool, ere the sun's bright rays,
With firey glow o'er all things blaze.

When the parching heat and the drought unite,
The fields look dreary and sad is the sight;
But changed is the scene, when genial showers
Descend and revive the languishing flowers.

Again the bright leaves, with gay sunset hues,
Appear on the trees 'midst hoar frost and dews;
Like beauty in youth, their hey-day is brief,
For beauty will fade, as fadeth a leaf.

And now the last sands of the waning year
Are fast running out—will soon disappear;
Thou wasting old year, a hearty farewell
We give thee once more, ere sounds thy death knell.

HAMPDEN DAGUERRIAN GALLERY.

FOOT'S BLOCK, MAIN ST.,

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

This establishment recently fitted up by the proprietor at great expense, is now open to the Public. No pains have been spared in rendering it one of the most splendid, as it is the largest and most extensive establishment of the kind in the United States.

The convenient arrangement of his rooms, large and beautiful sky-light, superior largest size instruments and skillful and experienced operators, will give him facilities for taking Daguerreotypes unsurpassed for the perfect and beautiful expression of the eyes, richness of tone, beautiful finish, and artistic arrangement at any other establishment in the country.

Pictures taken in all weather, colored if desired and elegantly set in Cases, Frames, Lockets, Pins, Rings, &c. and warranted satisfactory.

All the apparatus and material used in the art constantly on hand and for sale at the lowest cash prices.

Instruction given on reasonable terms.

The Public in general and strangers, are respectfully invited to call and examine his large collection of Daguerreotypes and Paintings.

Mr. Stock has rooms directly over the gallery, and is prepared to execute orders for Portraits, Landscapes, Banners, &c. warranted satisfactory in every respect. Those having Daguerreotypes of deceased friends can have them copied the size of life, and a faithful likeness of the original warranted. Specimens to be seen at the Gallery.

Orders for likenesses of sick or deceased persons, Daguerreotyped or Painted at short notice, either in or out of town.
